

CONCERN #17: Does Administrative punishment continue after Judicial punishment is completed? Are TSA agents allowed to use or consult SPLC or its private list? Who authorizes the NFL list or Quad S? How does one get on or off the NFL or Quad S?

Gerry Delemus is Quad S after having served his time.

August 29, 2016

by Bill Morlin

Two men who backed Nevada rancher Cliven Bundy in his standoff with federal officers in 2014 have struck plea bargains with federal prosecutors.

Gerald “Jerry” A. DeLemus, 61, of Rochester, N.H., and Blaine Cooper, 36, of Humboldt, Ariz., are the first of 19 defendants charged in Nevada to plead guilty. The remaining 17 defendants indicted for roles in the Bunkerville standoff, including Cliven D. Bundy and his sons, Ammon, Ryan, Melvin and David Bundy, are scheduled to stand trial in February. They are accused of conspiracy, threatening federal officers, carrying firearms during a crime of violence and obstruction.

Gerald “Jerry” DeLemus (left) and Blaine Cooper, aka Stanley Blaine Hicks.