

CONCERN #20: NGO (SPLC) endorses “Domestic Terrorism Prevention Act”

May 19, 2023

Murray, Cantwell Reintroduce Domestic Terrorism Prevention Act

According to the GAO, the FBI's open domestic terrorism cases increased by 357% between 2013 and 2021

Act would establish federal offices dedicated to combating threat of domestic terrorism

In May 2022, Senate Republicans filibustered the House-passed Domestic Terrorism Prevention Act.

Senators Murray and Cantwell joined Sens. Durbin (D-IL), Baldwin (D-WI), Menendez (D-NJ), Cardin (D-MD), Gillibrand (D-NY), Whitehouse (D-RI), Murphy (D-CT), Schatz (D-HI), and Cortez Masto (D-NV) in reintroducing the legislation.

The Domestic Terrorism Prevention Act is endorsed by the Leadership Conference for Civil and Human Rights; the Center for the Study of Hate & Extremism; the Southern Poverty Law Center Action Fund; Human Rights Campaign; Bend the Arc: Jewish Action; and the Sikh Coalition.
